

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Dane Lukić
Address: 171 Kyle Street, C12
G4 0JQ Glasgow,
UK
Born: 14.09.1982 in Bosnia and Herzegovina
Contact: e-mail: Dane.Lukic@gcal.ac.uk

Main Education:

Jan 2009-present PhD in Organizational Learning. Working on the project “Learning from Incidents”, Glasgow Caledonian University, Caledonian Academy. Shell and UK Energy Institute Fellowship.

2006-2008 Erasmus Mundus MA student in Lifelong Learning: Policy and Management at Danish University of Education, Copenhagen and University of Deusto, Bilbao.

2001-2006 BA in English Language and Literature, Faculty of Philology, University of Belgrade.

2004-2005 Belgrade Open School, Department for Advanced Undergraduate Studies, the Core Programme. Relevant interdisciplinary modules attended: Civil Society I&II, Market Economy, Skills (Rhetoric, Business Culture, Presentation), Personality and Democracy.

Experience:

February 2009 -Facilitator and resource person at “Y Vote on Jobs and Mobility” Rome, AEGEE conference. Education and Mobility Working group.

October-November 2008 -Teaching English to adults –Fundació Innova, Barcelona.

February-August 2006 -Part-time translator, assisting a court interpreter.

May 2005-June2006 -Part-time Invigilator/Supervisor at British Council Belgrade. Working for Cambridge ESOL exams and other international exams conducted by British Council as well as office assisting.

April-September 2005 -Volunteering at CePIT (Center for the Research of Informational Technologies) at Belgrade Open School. Involved in the creation of the prospectus of BOS. Also participated in the coordination of field researchers for the Research of Internet Usage in SCG.

Non-formal Learning Experience:

June 2008 -“Youth Participation in Youth Policy Development Processes in South-East Europe”, Verusa, Montenegro.

May 2008 -BEST course “On the Way to Improve Quality in Engineering Higher Education”, Athens, Greece.

December 2007 - Intercultural and Inter-religious Internship Programme “Citizenship in a Multicultural and Multi-religious Society”, Bilbao, Spain.

Curriculum Vitae

- August 2007 -5th edition of Training the Trainers – “Developing youth capacity to promote intercultural dialogue”, Oradea, Romania
- April 2007 -YOUTH training course for trainers “Drama in Non Formal Education”, Kocaeli, Turkey
- January 2007 -AEGEE conference “Bologna Process: Chance or Obstacle”, Stuttgart, Germany.
- November 2006 -YOUTH training course “Conflict management in International Youth Exchanges”, Vienna. Austria
- July 2006 -Global Partnership for Activism, Advocacy and Cross-Cultural Training Program, Zagreb, Croatia
- May 2006 -Seminar "Intercultural Learning as a Tool for Promoting Diversity in Multinational Societies" Ohrid, Macedonia
- September 2005 -BEST course “Be the Boss: How to be a Good Manager in Multinational Companies” Bucharest, Romania
- July 2005 -Youth Organizing Institute (YOI): Community Leadership and Training of Trainers, Novi Sad, Serbia
- May 2005 - “Policy Paper Writing” course, Belgrade Open School.
- January 2005 - Winter School of Team Work, Zlatibor, Serbia.

Publications:

- 2008 “Erasmus Mundus and Intercultural Competence”, an article in Emanate-Magazine of Erasmus Mundus Association (issue 1, p.14-15).
- 2006 “Problems with the Typology of Taste”, Collection of essays of the Belgrade Open School. Students essays generation 2004/2005 No IX.

Research: Master thesis “Importance of social and leisure activities in international non-formal youth courses”. Qualitative research on two case studies.

Languages: Serbian (mother tongue), English (fluent), Spanish (good).

Skills: High organization and presentation skills. Good at and enjoys work in teams. Good with people and communicative. Creative and energetic. Pro-active attitude towards challenges and able to take initiative. Familiar with a number of Microsoft Office programs.

Other activities: Attended a one year Creative Artistic Workshop program that dealt with educational theatre and participated in a couple of performances using Theatre of the Oppressed approach of using theatre and drama for learning and activism. Also interested in social and youth work. Member of Erasmus Mundus Students and Alumni Association (EMA) as a part of the Conference and Events Advisory

Curriculum Vitae

Team (CAT). Part of a team of Erasmus Mundus Quality Assurance Exercise by the European Commission. Enjoys reading, nature and hosting friends. Highly philanthropic.